

Box Supper To Fatten Show Purse

Purse for the Hobby Arts and Flower Show, to be staged at the Civic Auditorium May 21, 22, and 23, will be fattened Saturday, Apr. 10, when the North Torrance Fuchsia Society, one of the three sponsors of the show, stages an old-fashioned box supper at McMaster Hall.

Fun will begin at 8:30 p.m., and each couple attending is to bring a box lunch which will be auctioned off to the highest bidder, with proceeds earmarked for the annual, all-community show. Blue jeans and calico will be the garb for the evening.

Carl Malkow will be master of ceremonies, and his orchestra will provide dance music. For those who don't "dig the hoodlum," there will be all types of ballroom dancing. The caller will instruct everyone in the "Virginia Reel."

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

A new baby sister has joined two-year-old Gayle Lynn in the 2202 1/2 S. Main St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Kennard C. Conway. Born at 10:28 a.m. Mar. 24, she weighed 7 lbs. 1 1/2 oz. and has been named Cheryl Dee. Father is a maintenance engineer at General Petroleum; grandparents are the Joseph John Thompsons, 2324 W. 214th St., and the Kennard Conways Sr., also of Torrance.

Another Mar. 24 arrival is Diane Marie, 7 lbs. 3 oz. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Striegel, 208 Calle Mayor. Born at 4:23 a.m., she joins one brother, two-year-old James Patrick. Father is a teacher with I.A. City Schools; the P. L. Rufflys of San Diego and the L. M. Striegels of Los Angeles are grandparents.

Flowers to Deck Alondra Club for JayCette Dance

Alondra Park Clubhouse will be turned into a blue and gold floral wonderland Saturday night, Apr. 10, when JayCettes sponsor a spring dance for members, their husbands, and guests, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Dance committee, headed by Mrs. Nolan Stuckey, is busy twisting the sky and sun-colored crepe paper into blossoms to use as a backdrop for the dance orchestra of Bob Olesar. The JayCee blue and gold emblem will center the cluster of posies, and matching streamers will be suspended from the ceiling for the full length of the hall. Additional blossoms will add touches of spring-time color to the walls.

A full evening of dancing, including many "mixers" will be enjoyed in the picturesque Clubhouse patio.

Mesdames Douglas Horlander and Chuck Herren are assisting Mrs. Stuckey with arrangements. Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Stuckey at FAirfax 8-1420 or any JayCettes member.

Food, Fun on Agenda for Moose Today

Good food and a lot of fun will be on the agenda twice at the Moose Hall, 1744 W. Carson St., today.

Starting at 9 a.m., Women of the Moose, Torrance Chapter 44, will serve a hot breakfast to adults for $1 and to children for 50 cents until 12 noon. Lou Johnson is supervising the bill of fare.

In the evening, starting at 6:30 o'clock, Nellie Smith will do her bit as chairman of an old-fashioned box social. The public is invited to attend both events.

Eight women of the Torrance chapter were on hand for initiation ceremonies held last week at Los Angeles, Chapter 800. Ada Briggs, deputy grand regent and College of Regents chairman of the Los Angeles chapter presided.

Principal speakers were Kay Mahaffy, supreme grand regent of Women of the Moose, who talked on "The Handbook," and Aede Oust, graduate grand regent and a member of the National Advisory Board, Grand Council of Women of the Moose of Merced County Chapter 966 Visalia, who spoke on "Prevention of Cancer."

Torrance women attending were Mesdames William H. Ambach, James Baudin, George Clay, Henry Olson, Ralph Frit, Jess Johnson, Leonard Swanson and James Evans.

Doris Russell M. D. Hinman Recite Vows

Now honeymooning at an undisclosed destination following their marriage Friday evening at the 2338 W. 246th St., Lomita home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Russell, are the new Mr. and Mrs. Marshall D. Hinman.

Plans are already under way for a gala reception when they return in two weeks, for the groom's mother, Mrs. James Hinman of Blackwell, Okla., who was unable to attend the services, will be visiting here at that time.

For the double-ring ceremony, the bride, the former Miss Doris Ann Russell, whose 8 1/2-battled-length white taffeta sprinkled with turquoise and a corsage of gardenias. Her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Russell, attended as best man and matron of honor, and her small niece, Judy Russell, served as ring bearer in a ballerin-length blue net over tulle, tulle frock accented with a headband of pink rosebuds.

About 30 close friends and relatives witnessed the rite.

The bride received her education at Lomita elementary schools, Narbonne High School, and Brown's School for Girls in Glendora. Her husband was educated at Kansas schools and has served for seven years with the U. S. Navy, seeing active duty during the Korean campaign. He is currently employed with Mayflower Trailer Co. in Harbor City.

The newlyweds plan to make their home with the bride's parents temporarily.

District Deputy Pays First To Trio Rebekahs

The carnival spirit took over the California Hall in Lomita last Wednesday night when Lucille Montz, district deputy president of District 84, paid her official visit to Trio Rebekah Lodge.

Hattie Schroeder, chairman of the evening, chose merry-go-rounds and clowns to center refreshment tables and carried out the carnival theme with a menu of hot dogs, popcorn, and peanuts.

During the business session, three delegates were named to represent Trio at the Rebekah Assembly, which will convene in Long Beach the latter part of May. Elected were Irma Powers, union past noble grand; Olive Veatch; and Retta Nelson.

Initiation ceremonies will take the spotlight Wednesday, Apr. 14, when members, their families, and friends gather at the hall at 6 p.m. for a potluck supper. Angeline Digario heads the committee on arrangements.

Five Meetings Set by WSCS

Executives of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church, will make plans for the month of April when they meet tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the church.

A new 10 o'clock circle will be formed Apr. 1 when Mrs. Roy Gore, 23205 Palena Ave., opens her home to interested women.

Three other sessions are slated for All Fools' Day. Miriam Circle will convene at 10:30 a.m. with Mrs. Dan Chlo, 20146 S. Laurence; Martha Circle will meet for a dessert luncheon at 12:30 p.m. with Mrs. John Taylor, 2806 Onrado St.; and Sarah Circle will gather for lunch at 12:30 p.m. at the 1583 W. 211th St. home of Mrs. Nellie Gray, with Mrs. Sara Hogue sharing hostess honors.

Juniors Feted At Bingo Party

Prizes for the evening took on a different slant Wednesday night when advisors feted the Junior Woman's Club with a bingo party at the Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Instead of awarding the prizes for high scores in the game, the advisors surprised members, instructing them to turn over their chairs to see whether or not they had won. Mrs. V. T. Lovelady found "first prize" taped on her chair, while Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, outgoing Senior president, got second prize.

With Mrs. Van Deventer as a guest was Mrs. Fay Rogers, president-elect of the Senior Club. The three hostesses, Mesdames James R. A. Bingham, E. L. Snodgrass, and B. W. Roberts, chose bouquets of yellow flowers to decorate refreshment tables and climaxed the evening by presenting a lace tablecloth to the Juniors on behalf of the "mother" club.

Local YW Leaders Plan Asilomar Trip

Even delegates will be representing the Harbor District YWCA at the Regional Conference, to be held at Asilomar, Apr. 3 through 7.

The session, held every three years in preparation for the national convention which comes the following year, will this year stress the Centennial of the Young Women's Christian Association, which will take place in 1955. In addition, special emphasis will be given to public relations and issues to be studied for Convention action next year.

Attending the conference from this area will be Mesdames O. C. Grow, area Centennial chairman; Louise Larson, vice chairman of the personnel committee; Arnold Ecklund, first vice-president of the Area Board and membership chairman; Kenneth Lapiar, Wilmington Centennial chairman; P. V. Aguirre, former chairman of the Wilmington YW committee.

Lee Stamps, chairman of the finance committee; Elsa Morris, executive director; Otis S. Hachstone, membership and public relations director; Caroline Stehler, Wilmington director; Mary Y-tien coordinator.

Three Pianists Featured in Recital Today

Kathryne Buffington, pianist and teacher of Torrance, will present three young pianists in the next recital given by the South Day Music Arts Association today at 2:15 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Women's Clubhouse.

Ann Willis will play "Moccasin Dance" by Leslie "Waltzing Leaves" by Bizak, and "Evoing Bells" by Thompson, while Leita Davis will entertain with "Indian Drums" by Davis and "Rhumba" by Weybright.

Anna May Elder will play "March of the Wee Folk" by Gaynor, "Fancies Harp" by Thompson, and "Vale of Song" by Rolfe.

Featured guest at the recital will be Edmond Najera, young Redondo Beach composer, who will present selections from his operetta, "The Miracle of San Isidro." This work was recently produced by pupils of Mira Costa High School.

The public is invited to attend.

Michel, young adult director; and Miss Marian Fatout, Area horn, Wilmington director; Mary Y-tien coordinator.
